NEW PRODUCT

More and more outdoor brands have gradually smelled the trend of urban fashion, and their products emphasize the long-term comfort and safety, but also create a universal shape for people who switch between different scenes.

In recent years, in the natural exploration, the decoding of different young postures, the introduction of clothing series closer to the urban outdoor demand, breaking the conventional outdoor style label, using the constantly updated products to interpret the outdoor urban fashion.

Whether it's a mountain jungle or a modern city, it's easy to change scenes, natural fits, and outdoor urban style products, combining the superior functionality with the stylish look that fits the city, breaking the boundaries between urban and outdoor. Suitable for casual dating, suburban outings, etc., so that people can enjoy nature at any time under busy work.

Resin zipper zippers have many shapes, and the finished products can be small and meticulous, but also rough and strong. But no matter what kind of pull, we should feel whether the pull of the pull is free or not, and whether the zipper can not be pulled or closed. zippers sold on the market now have self- locking devices, so after zipper is pulled up, it is necessary to check whether, the zipper will slide down after the lock is fixed.

Outdoor sports is a kind of exercise that allows the body and mind to exercise under the efforts of the participants themselves, while making themselves more natural. It is also suitable for people's leisure activities during the holidays. They can exercise, hone their will and make friends. In outdoor sports, you must pay attention to safety. Generally, the possibility of an accident outdoors is greater than the possibility of an accident indoors. Therefore, you must consider safety and health and prepare for outdoor sports in advance.

The word "fashion" has become the world's fashion pronoun, English for fashion, almost always hanging on the lips of some people, – frequently appeared in newspapers and media. Many people have different understandings of fashion. Some people think that fashion is simplicity rather than luxury and waste.

Sometimes fashion is just for novelty. It gives people a new feeling of fashion king. In reality, many people who do not synchronize with fashion are regarded as old-fashioned and outdated. The so-called fashion is fashion and fashion. Combination. The so-called time is time, the present, that is, in a period of time; Shang, there are advocates, noble, high-grade, leading.

Fashion in this era, not just for decoration, but has evolved into a sense of pursuit of truth, goodness and beauty.
